

A Faith that Works

February 9

Read: James 3:1-12

1. What are some key observations you have regarding this passage?
2. The tongue is described as a fire that can set the course of one's life on fire. Have you ever experienced or witnessed the power of words- either positive or negative- that significantly impacted a relationship or situation?
3. James uses powerful imagery (like a bit in a horse's mouth and a rudder on a ship) to show how our words can direct our lives. In what situations do you find it hardest to think before speaking, and how can you practice more thoughtful consideration in those moments?
4. How can we rely on God to help us maintain consistency in honoring Him with our words?
5. What are some practical steps you can take this week to better control your speech, especially in moments of frustration or anger?
6. Group prayer
